AVERY LIBRARY
COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

NEW YORK, May 1st, 1871.

In the introduction of our large variety of patterns contained in this book, we feel great confidence in their commending themselves to the favorable consideration of the public, and are designed to suit every want in their several modifications.

We wish our customers to distinctly understand that our stock kept on hand is of the very best material, perfectly dry, and all cleaned by hand complete. A liberal discount from book prices will be given on large orders.

Also inform our patrons that we are prepared to furnish orders worked out of materials selected by themselves, at a deduction of price according to quality of material and finish.—Further, we will stick and finish all kinds of Mouldings ordered by our customers of their own material, at prices and terms agreed upon.

All hard wood Mouldings, such as Ash, Oak, Walnut, &c., are double the price as stated in Price List for Pine Mouldings.
